We are the Champions

The Dayton Flyers women's soccer team won its Atlantic 10 Conference-record ninth tournament championship with a 2-1 come-from-behind victory over top-seeded La Salle Sunday at Baujan Field.

The Flyers (12-8-2) will head to their fourth NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Championship in the last six years.

Dayton will take on Virginia Tech (14-5) at 7 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 15, in Blacksburg, Virginia.

Dayton made the tournament in 1996, 1999, 2001, 2003, 2004 and 2009-2011. It advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2001 and won first-round games in 2009 and 2010.

The women's soccer team also is successful in the classroom. It is one of eight Flyer teams with a perfect NCAA Graduation Success Rate.
